Sunset on Saigon River (evening)

A sunset cruise on the Saigon River with fresh gentle breezes and pastoral scenery will bring visitors to the Binh Quoi Tourist Village. Set on verdant grounds with coconut-shaded creeks and thatched cottages, the village offers a reminiscence of the Mekong Delta in bygone days. It is time to watch a fascinating cultural show presenting a traditional wedding with a bridal procession on water, solemn rituals and vibrant dances. Visitors will enjoy an elaborately prepared Vietnamese dinner served indoors by the riverside before their return to downtown Ho Chi Minh City by car.

Departure: 17:00 Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday only. Minimum group size of 2 people.

Cu Chi Tunnels (half day)

Cu Chi used to be a fierce battleground for many years during the Vietnam War. Visitors should not miss a visit to this "underground village", an intricate network of over 200km-long tunnels at Ben Duoc, 75km from downtown Ho Chi Minh City. Try a very short segment of this labyrinth of interlaced tunnels and you will find it incredible. Then you can make a stop at the Ben Duoc War Memorial (over 40,000 people have fallen) before testing your marksmanship with an AK rifle at a local rifle range (optional with surcharge). Pick up and drop off at your hotel.
