Photo Safari at Mui Ne Sand Dunes and White Lake (half day)

Early in the morning pick up at your hotel and drive to Cape Ne to visit the stunning Mui Ne sand dunes from dark red to snow white sand, an ideal place for photographers. Optionally have fun with kite-flying there. Then drive about 30km to the Bau Trang (White Lake) at Hong Lam Hamlet, Hoa Thang Village, a freshwater lake formed long ago in the middle of a vast sand dune area alternated with poplar forests. Lotus flowers naturally grow around the lake and embellish it with their pinkish blossoms. In the sun snow-white sand dunes reflect themselves in the still water. Drive back to your hotel/resort.

Ta Cu Mountain with Sakiyamuni Buddha Statue & Ke Ga Lighthouse (half day)

Pick up at your hotel and drive southwards to Ta Cu mountain, 28 km from downtown Phan Thiet. On the way, stop over at a local farmer's dragon fruit garden. Take a cable car for your gradual ascent up the mountain to Linh Son Truong Tho pagoda, located at the height of 475 meters on the slope of the mountain and famous with the 49m long, 18m high statue of reclining SAKIYAMUNI Buddha. Then admire the marvelous natural sight of Takou mountain on your descent by walking hundreds of steps down the mountain and passing twisting road through the forest. Then depart a scenic drive to Ke Ga cape where stands a 65m high lighthouse, built of granite stone in 1899, considered as the tallest and oldest existing lighthouse in Vietnam. On arrival, take a motorboat or a round boat for a short distance ride of 200 m to the Ke Ga islet and start conquering the lighthouse with 184 spiral steps up to the top. Drive back to Phan Thiet. Drop off at your hotel.

Phan Thiet City Tour (half day)

Pick up at your hotel/resort and transfer to the bustling Con Cha fishing market. Board a traditional sampan boat for a one-hour river cruise along the Ca Ty river, which helps you know more about the local fishermen's lifestyle. Continue your tour with a traditional cyclo ride through Phan Thiet town. Stop to visit Duc Thanh School, where late President Ho Chi Minh taught before leaving Vietnam for Paris in 1911, and Quan Thanh temple (Ong Pagoda), the most ancient and largest Chinese pagoda in Binh Thuan. Then stroll around the Phan Thiet market. The next stop is at Van Thuy Tu temple on Ngu Ong Street. Known as the oldest temple dedicated to whales in Binh Thuan and listed as a national heritage site in 1996, the temple contains some 100 skeletons, and more than half of them are from 100 to 150 years old. Continue visiting Linh Quang Pagoda, which boasts a collection of Buddhist writings, engraved on wood almost 300 years ago, making them the oldest wood-engraved religious scripts in Vietnam. On returning to your hotel, stop to visit Poshanu Cham tower. Drop off at your hotel.

Phan Thiet - Da Lat (3D/ 2N Program)

NEW

Day 1: Phan Thiet - Da Lat (-, -, -)

In the morning pick up at your hotel and leave Phan Thiet for Da Lat via Bau Trang (White Lake) a freshwater lake formed long ago in the middle of a vast sand dune area alternated with poplar forests. On arrival in Dalat, transfer to your hotel for check-in. Afternoon visit Xuan Huong Lake, Domain De Marie Church, Hang Nga Crazy House. Stay overnight in Dalat. Stay overnight in Da Lat.

Day 2: Da Lat (B, -, -)

Spend this day to discover the romantic city of Dalat, established on a plateau some 1,500 meters above sea level in 1912 and reminiscent of an alpine town with its French chalets and pine forests. In the morning, visit Dalat Flower Garden and take a 40-minute train ride (the train was used during the French domination and is now only used in Dalat) to Trail Mat. Enjoy the nice scenery of vegetable, flower, and fruit gardens along the route. Have a short-distance walk to Linh Phuoc Pagoda. In the afternoon visit former summer residence of Emperor Bao Dai (the last emperor of Vietnam), Truc Lam Thien Vien (Truc Lam Meditation Retreat) and the hand embroidery village of "XQ History". Stay overnight in Dalat.

Day 3: Departure from Da Lat (B, -, -)

Spend last minutes shopping before check-out. Transfer to Lien Khuong airport for departure.
