Nha Trang - Dalat - Phan Rang - Nha Trang (3D/2N)

Day 1: Nha Trang - Dalat (-, -, -)

Morning pick up at your hotel and depart for a scenic drive of 150 km on the new road for Dalat via Hon Giao Pass, the longest pass of Vietnam (33 km). During the journey, enjoy the spectacular views of green hills and mountains, simple and small villages of Cil and K'Ho ethnic groups, flower farms, Bidoup primitive forest with Pinus Krempfii - a rare species of pine trees. On arrival in Dalat, transfer to your hotel for check-in. Afternoon visit to Xuan Huong Lake, Domain De Marie Church, Hang Nga Crazy House and the hand embroidery village of "XQ History". Stay overnight in Dalat.

Day 2: Dalat (B, -, -)

Spend this day to discover the romantic city of Dalat, established on a plateau some 1,500 meters above sea level in 1912 and reminiscent of an alpine town with its French chalets and pine forests. In the morning, visit Dalat Flower Garden and take a 40-minute train ride (the train was used during the French domination and is now only used in Dalat) to Trại Mat. Enjoy the nice scenery of vegetable, flower, and fruit gardens along the route. Have a short-distance walk to Linh Phuoc Pagoda. In the afternoon visit former summer residence of Emperor Bao Dai (the last emperor of Vietnam), Truc Lam Thien Vien (Truc Lam Meditation Retreat). Stay overnight in Dalat.

Day 3: Dalat - Phan Rang - Nha Trang (B, -, -)

Visit the 110-year old Dalat market before returning to Nha Trang via 'Ngaoan Muc' (spectacular) mountain pass. Stop over in Phan Rang-Thap Cham for visiting Po Klong Garai Cham Towers and Cham traditional handicraft villages producing terracotta and weaving brocade (My Nghiep brocade-weaving village and Bau Truc pottery village). Drop off at your hotel in Nha Trang.
