River cruise & Countryside trekking (day tour)

Visit Dinh Cau Rock, situated by the mouth of the Duong Dong River, where sand, sea, sun and stone blend in perfect harmony. With its small shrine dating from the 1930's, this place is not only an odd-shaped scenic beauty but also a quaint sacred holy place where local fishermen pray to God before setting sail. Once at the top, feel the gentle sea breeze, watch sunset over the eroded rock formation and enjoy a peaceful view of the Duong Dong River. Then board a local boat at Duong Dong jetty and cruise upstream the Duong Dong River, viewing bustling markets, coconut palms, mangrove forests and quiet villages along the river banks. The tour also includes a 4-km trek through pepper gardens to Da Ban waterfall with stops-over at some local homes en route. Enjoy a picnic lunch on a table-like river bed under a canopy of leaves. Drive back to your resort. End of service.
